

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This directed free of charge broadcast violates the rules.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Broadcasters who violate the federal laws in this way should have their broadcasting band removed. The airwaves belong to the people of USA.